

Rodney C. Thomson

Summary Forty years of extensive experience with the U.S. Government and an aerospace corporation in the development, management and conduct of security operations, investigations, and resources protection countering criminal, terrorist and foreign/economic espionage infiltration of sensitive national assets.

Experience 2006–2013 Thomko Consulting Services, Inc. Austin, TX
President

- . Strategic Security, Investigations, and Operations Consulting including government and business strategies to protect against economic espionage, espionage, terrorism, and criminal threats or violence in the work place.

2003–2006 Federal Bureau of Investigations Austin, TX
Supervisory Special Agent – Austin Resident Agency

1997–2003 Federal Bureau of Investigations Washington D.C.
Supervisory Special Agent – FBI Headquarters

Chief, Special Programs (2000–2002) National Counterintelligence Executive at CIA Headquarters, Langley, VA (FBI Detailee)

Supervisory Special Agent – FBI Headquarters (2002-2003 & 1997-2000)

1986-1997 Federal Bureau of Investigations Denver & Los Angeles
Special Agent – FBI

- 1995-1996: In addition to recognition as an accomplished investigator in Denver and Los Angeles, successfully served long term temporary duty assignments as an Acting Legal Attaché to the U.S. Embassy in Seoul, Korea to spearhead establishment of a permanent Legal Attaché office in Korea. Also served as an Assistant Legal Attaché to the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo Japan.

1985-1986 Northrop Advanced Systems Division Pico Rivera, CA
Senior Security Representative – Subcontractor Security

- Managed security oversight compliance inspections of numerous subcontractors involved in a sensitive compartmented contract for the U.S. Government.
- Developed and implemented the first counterintelligence reporting program utilized by U.S. Government contractors.

1975-1984 United States Air Force Worldwide
Special Agent – Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI)

Initially worked as a Law Enforcement Specialist responsible for Law Enforcement, Industrial Security and Resources Protection Inspections and operations. Selected for special duty assignment as a special agent for the Air

RODNEY C. THOMSON

204 Rio Ancho Blvd
Liberty Hill, Texas 78642

(512) 277-7070
Email: rodney.thomson@sageinvestigations.com

Force Office of Special Investigations responsible for conducting investigations and operations for the USAF in the areas of Counter-Terrorism, Espionage, criminal offenses and fraud.

Education Southern Illinois University-Carbondale

- B.S., Occupational Education, 1985 (Graduated summa cum laude).
- Special Agent Appointment, 1979, USAF/OSI Academy
- Case Officer Certification, USAF/OSI Counterespionage Case Officers Course
- A.A.S., Criminal Justice, 1984, Community College of the Air Force
- Special Agent Appointment, 1986, FBI Academy
- Korean Language School (1990-1992) Defense Language Institute

Personal Data

Born 1954, El Paso, Texas. Married, three children. Interests include camping, music, writing, computers, and church activities. Past Commander, American Legion FBI Post 56. Past languages learned/spoken: German & Korean.